

OPENING SCIENCE UP EU-FUNDED PROJECTS SUPPORT INSTITUTIONAL CHANGE IN UNIVERSITIES AND RESEARCH INSTITUTIONS TO SOCIETY

FIVE KEY CHANGES

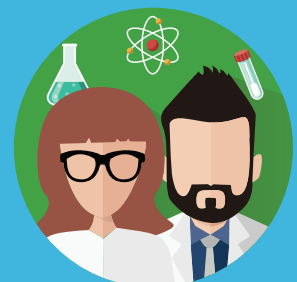

Public engagement

Science education

Open access

Gender equality

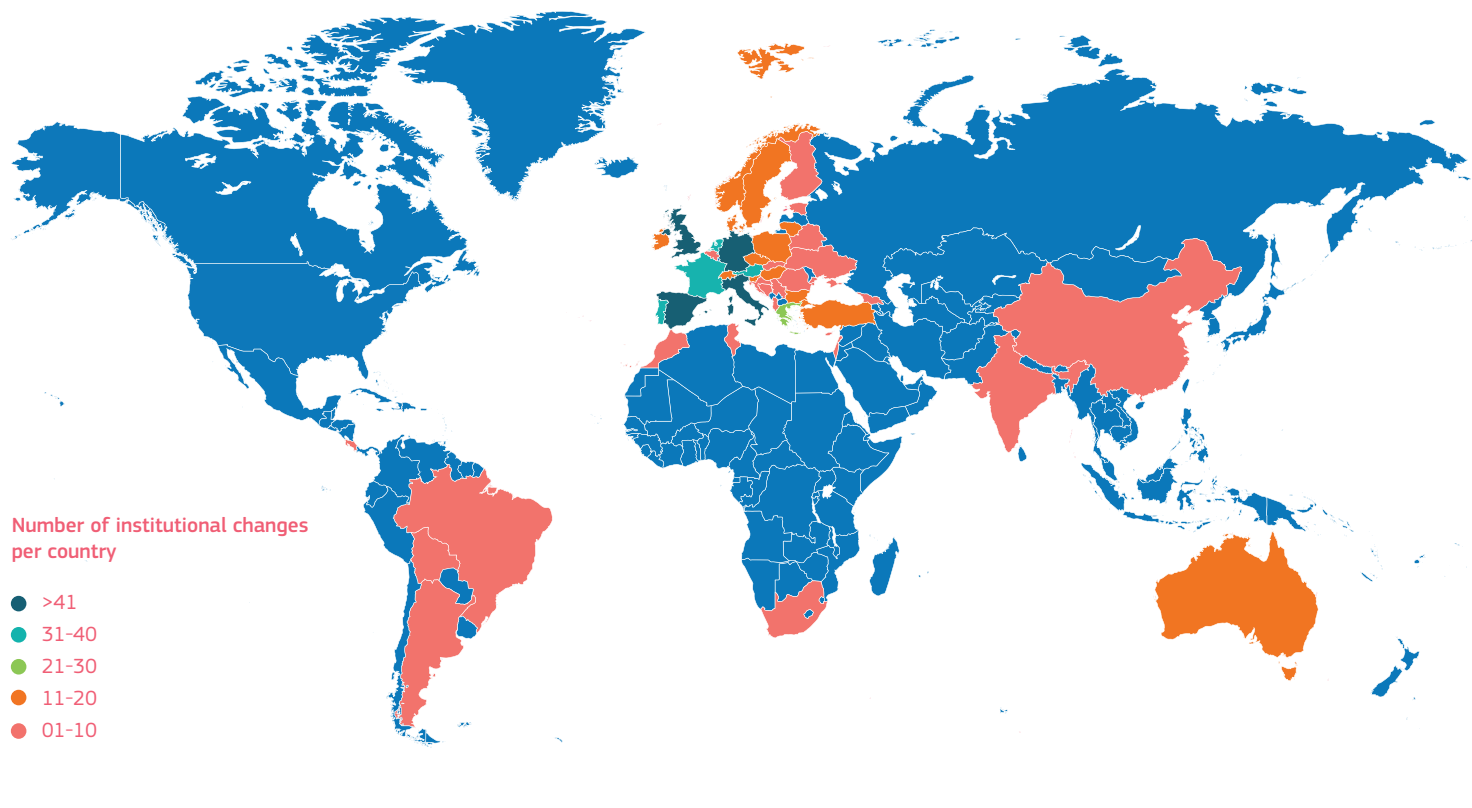

Ethics and research integrity

Science with and for Society (SwafS) projects aim to build effective cooperation between science and society, recruit new talent, and pair scientific excellence with social awareness and responsibility.

SwafS has been instrumental in implementing institutional changes in universities and research organisations, and spreading a new culture of openness and cooperation.

To date, SwafS projects have implemented more than 700 changes in their organisations.
