1.5. Purpose of the processing
The REA Internal Communication organises a variety of internal events for REA staff only. These internal events are organised for information or celebratory purposes: information sessions, parties, drinks.

The invitation to these internal events is ensured via an Outlook invitation that be sent either by the Director’s office, by the REA Internal Communication team. The distribution of processing activities between the Director’s office and the Internal Communication team is provided under point 1.10.

The invitation clearly indicates how the data subjects can give their explicit consent to appear on photos, as well on videos or on publications. In practice, consent is collected by the means of the voting button (yes/no) embedded in the invitation sent to data subject via Outlook.

The purpose of processing personal data of staff is to organise the event and communicate internally about it afterwards.

This communication can be undertaken by means of emails, of REA’s internal newsletter, of its internal magazine (The REAder) or via REA intranet. This communication may include the use of pictures and audio-visual material subject to data subjects’ consent.

Participation to these events is not mandatory and is not conditional to the provision of consent by data subjects for the collection and processing of non-mandatory personal data described under point 1.10. Data subjects who do not provide their consent to appear on pictures and audio-visual material will receive in advance a badge to wear visibly at the event. When possible, a picture-free area will also be indicated.

In addition, data subjects may withdraw at any time their consent for the processing of the non-mandatory personal data by notifying the controller via REA-INTERNAL-COMMUNICATION@ec.europa.eu.
For digital and hybrid events, third parties providing the digital platforms authorised by DIGIT\(^2\) process personal data. In this context and when applicable, data subjects are duly informed of the data protection policy of those third parties via the data protection notice.

1.6. Legal basis for the processing

This processing activity is based on:
Article 5(1)(a) of the Regulation, it is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in REA by the following legal acts:
- Commission decision C(2021)952 of 12.2.2021 delegating powers to the European Research Executive Agency with a view to the performance of tasks linked to the implementation of Union programmes in the field of Research and Innovation, Research of the Fund for Coal and Steel and Information Provision and Promotion Measures concerning Agricultural Products comprising, in particular, implementation of appropriations entered in the general budget of the Union;
