In conformity with the European Commission DIGIT specifications, the Back office suite is protected by EU Login, which guarantees the authentication of each user wanting to connect to the system. Furthermore, an additional authorisation mechanism has been setup to enable fine-grained data access management.

The application is accessible from the ERCEA internal network. The database is hosted at DIGIT who is in charge of the back-ups and availability.

The source code is stored in version control (Git) managed by the Commission Information Technology Network (CitNet). Only members of the Software Development Team (in ERCEA Unit D1 IT Solutions and Services) are granted access to the three separate technical environments (e.g. Oracle database, Java code, etc.).

Only designated ERCEA and REA staff on a need to know basis has the possibility to access the data for the legitimate performance of tasks within the competence of recipient. Three level of accesses are granted:
- Read-only access for users with a communication role i.e. communication correspondents
- A restricted set of users from the Communication and Feedback to policy sector has read and write access.
- A limited 'configuration' role is granted to a couple of team members of the Communication and Feedback to policy sector who can adapt the organisation of the information in the application in a limited way.
